- Step 2: Register for classes and maintain at least half-time enrollment.
- Step 3: Check and follow through on the e-mails received from Student Financial Services regarding federal aid.
- Step 4: Accept Award(s)

Merit Based Scholarships

Students may apply for various merit based scholarships found here.

Please note open scholarships will have an "apply here" link

Fall Scholarships open in Feb and June

Spring Scholarships open in Oct and Nov

COVID Scholarship

Scholarship funds are available to those who have exhausted all resources and are in need of assistance with their tuition bill and fees. The award amounts are determined on a case-by-case basis and based on funding availability. Priority will be given to the Spring and Summer Terms.

Full balance awards are not guaranteed. There is potential that other payment arrangements may be required to fulfill any remaining balances before scholarship is awarded. Please note various options will be made available with extended time frames on a case-by-case basis.

Crisis Relief Funds

Relief Funds are available to students experiencing financial difficulties due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

Currently enrolled students who are Title IV eligible may apply to receive funding for the following:

- Elimination of jobs and/or reduction of income
- Medical care
- Housing and food insecurity
- Utility expense
- Technology needs for remote learning
- Unexpected travel costs
- Other unplanned essential expenses

Students must meet Title IV eligibility.
