

Social Media Post and TKU Daily Connect Email:

Hello TKU Family,

The King's University Leadership would like to bring you an update on the status of funds availability for those enduring hardship during the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic. These funds are available to those who have exhausted all resources and are in need of financial assistance.

Please click here <https://www.tku.edu/news/coronavirus/> to read more about the qualifications on the TKU COVID website. It also includes the link to the application for assistance.

If you find that you are not eligible, please contact Student Financial Services at financialservices@tku.edu for further assistance.

Blessings,
TKU Student Financial Service