- Dates: Sunday, July 14 – Saturday, July 20
- Coordinator: Taren Walters
- Faculty: Dr. Kenneth Ulmer

COURSE OFFERINGS:

OXFD3302 BIBLICAL JUSTICE AND MINISTRY

The course reviews biblical principles dealing with personal and social justice, including their implications for practical ministry situations. Christians are called to communicate biblical justice in a way that shows the power of the Christian Gospel to change people's lives. The course will provide an understanding in how best to communicate biblical justice in love and truth in a revolutionary way

OXFD6302 BIBLICAL JUSTICE: PASTORAL CONSIDERATIONS

The course is an analysis of biblical accounts related to personal and social justice, with special focus on implications for pastoral ministry. Pastoral ministers are called to communicate biblical justice in a way that empowers the Gospel to change people's lives. This course will provide an understanding of how best to implement biblical justice in love and truth in a revolutionary way.
