

Articulation Agreement

The King's University and Central Valley School of Ministry

Recognizing the historic and unified vision of Central Valley School of Ministry and The King's University to train the next generation for life-transforming ministry, this Articulation Agreement presents a formal collaboration between the two institutions for the purpose of fulfilling the mission of both organizations. As institutions committed to preparing individuals for the servant leadership in the Church and community, Central Valley School of Ministry (CVSOM) and The King's University (TKU) agree to the following:

Acceptance of CVSOM Graduates: The King's University, accredited by the Association of Biblical Higher Education and the Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools, agrees to accept into its degree programs qualified CVSOM graduates who have been accepted to attend TKU.

Transfer of Credit: The King's University, which abides by the institutional transfer guidelines articulated by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) agrees to transfer into its degree programs course credit earned at CVSOM. Course transfer is based upon a course for course evaluation and must have an earned grade of C or higher to be eligible for transfer consideration. The total number of credits transferred into individual degree programs are regulated by the established Course Equivalency table.

Scholarships and Financial Aid: TKU participates in the Federal Student Aid Program. Additionally, CVSOM graduates who enroll in classes on the Southlake Campus will qualify to apply for The Blessed Life Scholarship, which awards annual scholarships based on the number of hours registered.

Administration and Support Service: CVSOM and TKU agree to extend consideration and support in administrative areas to ensure the smooth transition for CVSOM students who transfer to TKU.

Communications: Both CVSOM and TKU affirm the right to promote this articulation agreement and its terms in appropriate communications. This includes advertisements, promotional events, web site, alumni, and communications such as bulletins, newsletters, and catalogs.

This agreement is in effect for Fall 2015 and will remain in effect in perpetuity, subject to an annual review, unless written notice is provided by either party regarding revision or discontinuation. It is our prayer that this agreement will foster a partnership that will enhance the fulfillment of the mission and objectives of each institution and advance the work of the Kingdom of God.

Dated this 16th day of December 2015

Pete Sanchez, Jr., D. Min.

Vice-President Academics

The King's University

Brian Cain, M.A.

Director

Central Valley School of Ministry