Taught by Dr. Kenneth Ulmer

COURSE OFFERINGS

BIBM 2361 Engaging Culture: Mission and Service

This course explores the relationship between Christian faith, culture, and mission in diverse cultural contexts. Students will examine how cultural, social, and historical contexts shape the ways individuals and communities understand faith, identity, and their place in the world. Through theological reflection, discussion, and practical experiences with local ministries in Oxford, students will consider how Christians can faithfully engage people and communities whose cultural experiences and perspectives differ from their own.

Applications will be accepted until the course is full or until May per discretion of the Associate Director of Academics.
Applicants who have paid a deposit are accepted in the following order:

- Credit students enrolling in both weeks of Oxford.
- Credit students enrolling in one week of Oxford.
- Audit students.

Credit students are always given priority. There is no provision for a student to withdraw from an audited course, and no refunds are issued for audit fees, trip fees or deposit fees previously paid.

The Oxford Experience Trip must be paid in full by May 14, 2027. To ensure that each student is prepared to go. If you are utilizing FAFSA benefits you must contact Student Financial Services by February 2027, to arrange FAFSA to be used for the Oxford Experience.

Your passport must be valid through December 2027. If you do not have a passport or yours expires before December 2027, apply for or renew it before March 2027. Many countries require passports to be valid for six months after your trip.

The UK has implemented a £20 ($27) Electronic Travel Authorization for travelers to the UK. You must purchase this on your own. It allows you to enter the UK multiple entries within a 2-year period. https://www.gov.uk/guidance/apply-for-an-electronic-travel-authorisation-eta

Students who have a registration hold due to excessive incomplete courses (IN) or not meeting Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) will automatically be withdrawn from the Oxford course. Trip fees and deposits will be non-refundable. Students will be considered on a case-by-case basis whether they will be able to attend the summer course(s) once their incomplete is concluded, with a possibility of being denied. Students who have graduated must apply as an audit student to attend the summer after their final semester.

Full payment is required by May 14 2027.
If you wish to pay using a payment plan, please sign up in the student portal.

- To use a 3-payment plan, sign up by April 3rd.
- To use a 2-payment plan, sign up by May 3rd.

Once your application is received, you can begin making payments in the GoMethod portal, allowing you to spread out costs and avoid paying all at once. You will also receive a personalized fundraising link to share with friends and family who want to support your Oxford journey.

If you do not sign a payment plan with Student Financial Services then the full amount is due May 14, 2027.

Travel & Medical Insurance: Students are strongly encouraged to obtain travel and medical insurance for the duration of the trip. Students are responsible for any medical expenses, emergencies, or other costs that may arise while traveling.
